

Welcome!

Hi, it's Paul Bauer and welcome to the Abundance Kit

I am incredibly excited to share this transformational kit with you as you re-discover the abundance within you.

For centuries mankind has believed that there's limited supply of literally everything. And since very few people ever question this premise, millions of people fall into the trap of scarcity mentality.

The “Not Enough Effect”

I call it the Not Enough Effect and it affects people of all kinds, rich and poor. And until we question the myth of scarcity, it will show itself in our every day lives.

It may occur in your:

Career or your finances

Your love life

Your health and how much energy you have

And the one that makes the biggest difference, it's how you feel about yourself because until you let go of the old beliefs of scarcity and not enough, you will continue striving for more, and miss the very gifts that are right in front of you and within you.

This was a very sobering lesson for me years ago until several traumatic experiences, and something in me woke up. And I realized that whenever I felt that something was missing in my life, it was actually a signal from my subconscious that the breakthrough was about to occur.

This one single shift has made a profound difference in my life beyond words.

Most of us when we feel something is missing, reach out for “more“. With that be more love, money, friends, stimulants, or whatever it is that fills the void within us.

But the more you pay attention to how you feel about what matters most to you, the more you will begin to understand the true message and the energy and love hidden within literally all negative experiences in your life.

No matter how challenging the circumstances might be in your life especially around money and finances, these challenges are just messages from within you to pay attention. If you try to “fix“ the problem with more "stuff" (money, possessions, love, food, etc.) you will miss the message and have to repeat the cycle over and over again until you understand it's true intent.

You see, we've been literally hypnotized into believing that the material world is our source of wealth and abundance. But the truth is at the material world is just an effect. In other words it is not the cause.

Your True Source

When you look within yourself, you begin discover the true cause.

And the true cause is your connection to the Infinite. You can call it by any name, God, Universe, Source, Spirit, etc., but the key is to understand the difference at an experiential level.

One of the core parts of the Abundance Kit is the 12 essential oils that you receive. And the beauty of these essential oils is how they help you remember your innate connection to your true Source.

The biggest challenge we have as humans is that we forget our true Nature and our connection to the Source that creates everything.

Lets try something...

Close your eyes just for a moment and take a couple deep slow cleansing breaths.

Place your hand on your Heart and allow yourself to feel
Feel your connection to Mother Earth...
Feel your connection to the Life Essence that flows through you

Allow yourself to truly feel the energy that creates everything.

This energy is your True Source.

Beyond the mind, and beyond beliefs and limitations is this field of energy that creates and sustains all life. The beauty of essential oils is that they emanate and vibrate at that same frequency.

So as you learn how to use them – especially when it comes to your abundance in your life, you will simply be amazed how wonderful they make you feel and how you begin to look at life differently than you ever have before.

With each component of the abundance kit, you will remember your authentic connection to the Source.

I celebrate your Abundance within you my friend...

Aloha,

Paul Bauer
